

"O, my son! Today you are better than me!"
These are the few words that were said to a young boy, by the most knowledgeable priest of his time. He was merely an ordinary boy, like you and me, but there was something special in him. Something that many of us today will regard as something small. But in the sight of Allah, it was big. What was his secret? Applying Tawheed and calling towards it with his actions. The story is narrated by the leader of the prophets, Muhammad (PBUH):

"There lived a king before you and he had a (court) magician. As he grew old, he said to the king: I have grown old, send some young boy to me so that I should teach him magic. He (the king) sent to him a young man so that he should train him.

And on his way he (the young man) found a monk sitting there. He listened to his (the monk's) talk and was impressed by it. It became his habit that on his way to the magician he met the monk and set there and he came to the magician (late). He (the magician) beat him because of delay. He made a complaint of that to the monk and he said to him: When you feel afraid of the magician, say: Members of my family had detained me. And when you feel afraid of your family you should say: The magician had detained me. It so happened that there came a huge beast (of prey) and it blocked the way of the people, and he (the young boy) said: I will come to know today whether the magician is superior or the monk is superior. He picked up a stone and said: O Allah, if the affair of the monk is dearer to Thee than the affair of the magician, cause death to this animal so that the people should be able to move about freely. He threw that stone towards it and killed it and the people began to move about (on the path freely). He (the young man) then came to that monk and Informed him and the monk said: O, my son now, on this day, you are better than me! Your affair has come to a stage where I find that you would be soon put to a trial, and in case you are put to a trial don't give my clue. (...)"

The story goes on, with enormous benefits, but today our focus is these words that were said by the priest. "O, my son! Today, you are better than me!"

These words were the motivation that took a led to the adventurous life of the small kid, that made him to be remembered in history and the verses mentioning his story are read till the day today. When that boy applied the Tawheed which he had learnt, so the fruits came out of him applying it! Also did he accomplish to die as a Shaheed, the best of the martyrs. That was that Allah (the most glorious) accepted his prayer in a stance where truth was differentiated from Batil (falsehood) in front of all the people of the town so that they believed! We ask Allah to give us understanding in his religion.

Shaykh Usama bin Laden (May Allah accept him) related the story of this young boy in 2001 after the stance that was taken by the truthful young men the 9th of September. When they rushed forth to the gardens of Aden underneath which rivers flow. By crashing into the twin buildings of world trade center in America, Boston. Targeting the economy of the enemy as our Prophet targeted the caravan of his enemy at the battle of Badr. Which was also the first battle between Islam and falsehood. They were also ordinary Muwahideen, like the boy, trying to apply their Tawheed in that time and Era. They saw the oppression of America in several Muslim lands, so they decided to take a stance.

Just like that boy and those young men, we have recent example of another group of brave young men who performed another historical operation to free the prisoners which was the cause of terror for Kuffar.

On the authority of Abu Musa al-Ash'ari, the prophet (PBUH), said, "Free the captives." {Sahih al-Bukhari, 5649}.

So, by learning what was their obligation upon prisoners they stood up against Batil (falsehood) and entered a new Era of battle. Such is the barakah (blessing) that was put in their act. You will find Kuffar crying over these blessed attacks! He is Allah, he honors whom he wills and he disgraced whom he wills. In his hand is all good, and indeed he is over all things competent

On the 17th of Jumadul Akhirah, the Soldiers of the Khilafah, who were 12 in number, stormed Ghuweran prison, in Hasaka, where thousands of Muwahideen were held captive by the apostates and the crusaders. The knights of Islam detonated an explosive vehicle Infront of the prison gates and after seeking the blessing of Allah they entered the prison. The Muwahideen locked inside the prison also attacked the Murtad PKK from the inside thus igniting a fierce battle. The brothers captured weapons from the depository and fought the apostates with them.

The fighting continued to rage on as the soldiers of the Khilafah managed to free their brothers and in the process, they managed to capture the apostates. The lions of Khilafah spread all over the city, inflicting a slaughter on the enemies of Allah. The Mujahideen leaped forth, competing with each other to pledge allegiance to fight till death. The descendants of Abu Dujanah (RA) wearing red bands, terrorized the enemies of Allah.

The Coward Murtadeen and crusaders called for air cover and as a usual practice, the crusaders bombed the city indiscriminately. Even the weak and old prisoners were not spared by the crusaders. The imbecile crusaders were too scared to fight the lions on the ground. The soldiers of Allah were just a few in number, fighting and enraging thousands of Murtadeen and crusaders.

The whole world watched, the Kuffar and the heretics stood still, staring in horror at the brazenness of the Mujahideen and their exemplary courage. They could not believe their eyes. Their utter disbelief was unveiled through their words of anguish. For years the leaders of disbelief had deceived their people, they had lied to them, they had promised them with the end of the Islamic state and the defeat of the Mujahideen. Little did they know that the light of Allah cannot be extinguished and the soldiers of Allah can never be defeated. The imams of Kufr and the Munafiqeen couldn't hold back their disappointment either. They scowled and frowned, unable to hide their helplessness and their rage.

The blessed raid filled the Muwahideen with pride and happiness, their hearts filled with joy, and tears flowing from their eyes. They made takbir and prostrated themselves before Allah making Dua for their brothers. The knights of Islam, the pride and honor of the Muslimeen, the hope of the weak and oppressed Muslims. Today we also say to these lions of the Ummah: "O, our sons! on that day, you were better than us!"

Indeed, they were better than us. They gave away their Dunya and chose the afterlife. They chose victory for Islam. The fruits of their attack if we start mentioning them are too many. The "least" of them being, the fear that was stricken into the hearts of the disbelievers which is only increasing till the day today. We ask Allah to accept them and raise their ranks, and make them an example for the next coming generations.

O Muwahideen, look around you and observe. Who is fighting for the establishment of Allah's religion? Who is the sternest against the Kuffar and the Murtadeen? Who is constantly being bombed and fought against by the Kuf-far? Who is fighting to free the Muslim prisoners from the dungeons of the Tawagheet? Until when are you going to be fooled of Slaves of Allah? You are the best people on the face of this earth. Allah has honored you with Islam, Allah has chosen you to carry on the message of Tawheed. Run to your state, come to your brothers, rise up and dust off the shame and humiliation from your backs, break the shackles of slavery. Submit yourselves to Allah and fight in his cause. Allah will help you; Allah will aid you, Allah will punish your enemies, you will either live in honor and dignity or you will die as martyrs, the most honorable and noble death. Pledge allegiance to the Khalifah of Muslimeen and annihilate the Kuffar and the Mushrikeen

O' Crusaders, by Allah we have not forgotten you and we will never forget the crimes you have committed. You are the most unworthy imbeciles on the face of this earth. How many times are you going to lie to your people and to yourselves? How many times have you declared victory? How many times have you claimed to defeat the Islamic state? You cannot defeat us, by Allah, we will continue to torment you, we will haunt your dreams. You will never enjoy safety and security. The Soldiers of the Khilafah are getting stronger day by day, the ranks are getting purified, the Muwahideen have never been stronger in their resolve to fight you. We will slaughter all of you and your lapdogs, by the permission of Allah. The fighting has just begun. Die in your rage! All of you. The Khilafah will remain, by Allah's permission until the hour. The soldiers of the Islamic state will continue to enrage you, they will continue to inflict massacres and slaughters upon you. They will not cease fighting until the last Muslim prisoner is freed.

Lastly, we pray that: O Allah, grant victory to your slaves, the Mujahidin. O Allah, direct their shots and their arrows. O Allah, send down upon them your tranquility, fortify their hearts, pour upon them patience, make their feet steadfast and grant them victory over the disbelieving people, Amin.
